July,

It is not hard to write
it sad and in a way lucky.

Sarah, you forgot all those swell times we have had together. Remember one day that was loads of fun.
Remember all the hard time we had for the Dr. S. and also the swell time Rose and Rosey. Remember the wedding? and how well
she looked in it? Please do not forget all those swell memories.

Sarah, you are one of the best and one of my best friends. Please lets always keep it that way. Remember it'll be up the Mountain this next year.

Lucky happened to come to very best. Janet

P.S. Good Luck next year

FOREWORD

We, the Annual Staff of the ASH-HI-LIFE of '49, have attempted to capture the life and spirit of our times here in this the twelfth volume.

May this be a reminder of our Alma Mater and inspire us with high hopes and sure faith as we reach for ever higher rungs on the ladder of life.

DEDICATION

In appreciation of their work in the athletic department and all the extra duties they have fulfilled in raising the spirits and standards of Asheboro High School, we dedicate this volume of ASH-HI-LIFE to MISS ANGELYN GLISSON and MR. JACK BURROUGHS. May this dedication be a lasting tribute to these two, who have put others first and themselves last.

CLASS POEM

Twelve years we've toiled,
And now the end draws nigh.
Our footsteps shall choose different paths
When we leave Asheboro High.

Oh, Lord, we pray that thou wilt guide
And keep us in the light,
Lest we turn down the wrong highway
Or falter at the right.

The years were many,
And once we thought there'd never come
an end;
Yet the last few years have flown
Like petals on the wind.

Rejoicing o'er the good things,
Sorrowing o'er the bad,
We've shared every humble feeling
A mortal ever had.

Lord, keep us in thy way and light
Lest these good days decline,
And all we ask is that you bless
This Class of '49.

Whether we be humble folk
Or people of renown,
Our thoughts shall stray to Asheboro High
In this, our old home town.

In later years when ivy
Cling to these crumbling walls,
The echo of our footsteps
Will sound within these halls.

Our spirits still shall hover
When youth has passed us by,
And we'll still have our memories
Of days at Asheboro High.

When spring comes 'round this coming year
With many a golden sky,
We'll leave, and yet our hearts will stay
At good old Asheboro High.

RACHEL THOMPSON.

FAREWELL MEMORIES

Twelve years we've struggled upward,
Toward a high and worthy peak,
And we pause for one last backward look
E'er we, our lifework seek.

We see the many stumblingblocks
Our teachers steered us past
And lingering, look on happy times
Whose memories long will last.

Only one sad memory rests
With this class of '49
There's an empty place no one can fill
In our graduation line.

So now that we are leaving
Each long-established tie,
We bid a fond farewell
To dear old Asheboro High.

CHARLCIE BONKEMEYER.

HISTORY OF THE SENIOR CLASS

In the fall of 1945, 154 "shiny-faced" freshmen sauntered in at the front door of Asheboro High, gloating over the fact that they were in high school. After undergoing the regular freshman routine of getting in the wrong rooms, talking and chewing gum in class, and causing a general disturbance, we soon fell into the pattern of high school life.

Returning the next year as sophomores, we felt like experienced high school students and began making life miserable for the new freshmen, thus enabling the seniors to tag us as "silly sophomores". With various members of the class participating in different sports, we turned out more readily to the games and did our part in the cheering. Of course, we had the usual trouble with "Bugology," Julius Caesar, and the Gallic Wars; but by doing a little studying and trying to pass a few of the tests, we were able to claim the title of juniors the following year.

Entering our Junior year and feeling like regular upperclassmen, we immediately elected our class officers. Those chosen to lead us through this momentous year were: Max Redding, president; Howard Cox, vice-president; Joyce Lucas, secretary; and Barbara Allred, treasurer.

Sad, upon losing Mr. F. D. McLeod, who had been our superintendent for two years, we were fortunate in having Mr. Guy B. Teachey, formerly our principal, to fill his position. Mr. George W. Holmes, III, came to take over the duties of principal in the fall of 1947.

After weeks of hard work and several misfortunes, we presented our Junior play entitled, "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town." Those making up the cast were: Barbara Cox, Patsy McCain, Bernadine Powers, Barbara Maness, Clara Lee Hare, Earlene Vestal, Sally Anne Kivett, Howard Cox, Bill Underwood, Jerry Wagger, and Tommy Poindexter.

The same year we discovered that grades counted, for only twenty-two of us were received into the Beta Club.

Those chosen because of their high scholastic standings as Junior Marshals were: Howard Cox, chief; Jerry Ward, Barbara Allred, Dixie Cannon, Emily Stone, Janet Story, and Betty McCrary.

Spring came, bringing the time for the annual Prom. The Junior Class spent weeks making plans and preparing decorations to carry out the chosen theme of "Moonlight and Roses". The evening in this setting soon passed away, but was long remembered by everyone. The Seniors expressed their deepest appreciation.

Beginning our last year with pomp and circumstance, we attained the desired height of "dignified seniors".

Keeping in mind that we needed wise leadership this last year, we elected as our class officers the following: Howard Cox, president; Alton Cummings, vice-president; Betty Holt, secretary; and Janet Story, treasurer. Chosen to serve us as class mascots are Ann Arthur and Jimmy Trollinger. Green and white are our colors and the gardenia, our flower. To make our class original, we chose a seal picturing a gold miner and a '49 Follies girl. Across the top of the seal are the words "The Gay Forty-miners," and on the bottom is found our class motto, "Onward ever, backward never".

We find that after four years on one main highway, it has branched into 88 ways. Some will find detours, bridges, and other obstacles; some might even take a wrong turn; but many will travel the straight unhindered path. Even though hardships and difficulties may be encountered, each senior hopes to find his goal through steadfast plodding.

LAST WILL...

We, the Senior Class of 1949, of Asheboro, of Randolph County, of the State of North Carolina, being of sound minds but delayed actions and realizing that our days at Asheboro High School are numbered and are rapidly coming to an end, do make, declare and publish this—our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

SECTION 1. To Mr. Holmes and Mr. Teachey, we leave our utmost appreciation for the untiring work they have done for us.

SEC. 2. To the Senior Sponsors and other faculty members, we wish to express our sincere gratitude for making our Senior year the best year in school.

SEC. 3. To Miss Lassiter, we offer our genuine thanks for her wise planning and promotion of this annual.

SEC. 4. To the future upperclassmen, we leave our high school romances carved on the desks and those front seats in chapel.

ARTICLE II

SECTION 1. I, Earlene Vestal, do will my "Flirting Ways" to Jo Doris Hoover (as if she needed any more), and my "Ability to Succeed" to Golda Garner.

SEC. 2. We, Iris J. Powers and Helen Way, do leave our abilities of "getting by" in shorthand to our smaller sisters, Louise and Maxie.

SEC. 3. I, "Shot" Ward, do leave my ability to get along with girls to Junior Seawell, because he needs it.

SEC. 4. I, Maxine Ward, will my ability to get out of high school to Patsy Underwood.

SEC. 5. I, Phyllis Funderburke, do will my "fickle eyes" to Golda Garner and Harris Johnson and hope they won't cause them as much trouble as they have me!

SEC. 6. I, David Suggs, do leave Patti Koonce to Junior Seawell, as no one else can handle her.

SEC. 7. I, Ruth Beeson, do leave my green pocketbook, in which I carry everything from first-aid to lipstick and eats, to any junior who considers herself physically able to carry it.

SEC. 8. I, Corkey Marley, do leave my English to Darrell Ray Auman or anyone else who needs it.

SEC. 9. I, Lacy Walker, do leave my title as "The Biggest Flirt" to some bashful junior, namely, Bud Bulla.

SEC. 10. I, Betty Jackson, do will my glasses to Odell Kivett, so that he may see more and talk less.

SEC. 11. I, Betty Shaw, do will my chewing gum to Miss Mary Moffitt.

SEC. 12. I, Peggy Trotter, do will my black hair to Nancy Voncannon.

SEC. 13. I, Joyce Lucas, do leave my false tooth to any needy football player on next year's team.

SEC. 14. I, Dixie Cannon, leave nothing, as I need all I have.

SEC. 15. I, Nellie Mae Bescher, do will my place in the Beta Club to my brother, Jimmie, and my love for music to Mabel Bruton.

SEC. 16. I, Ralph Davis, do leave my ability to pass Algebra I to Walter Yount, Jr.

SEC. 17. I, Tommy Cashwell, do leave all my tardies to Wilson Kidd, hoping that he has time to make them up.

SEC. 18. I, Barbara Cox, will my blue angora sweater to any girl who likes to leave "traces."

SEC. 19. I, Sally Anne Kivett, do will my ability to get out of study hall to Allen Kivett, hoping he will have as much luck with it as I did.

SEC. 20. I, Vera Mae Hughes, do leave my love for talking to Millie York.

SEC. 21. I, Howard Cox, do will my ability to arrive at school two seconds before the tardy bell rings to Billy Lilly.

SEC. 22. I, Bernice Cook, do leave Millie York to carry on where I left off.

SEC. 23. I, Betty Bromley, do leave my long eyelashes to the Fuller Brush man and my "corny" jokes to anyone that wants them. Corny isn't this.

SEC. 24. I, Jean McDonald, will my ability to write shorthand to Evelyn Robbins.

SEC. 25. I, Jerry Ward, do leave my open air gymnasium to "Chub" Morgan.

SEC. 26. I, Bill Underwood, do leave my sizzling clarinet to Charlie McCrary.

SEC. 27. I, "Felix" Donnell, do hereby leave my name, "Felix" to anybody who likes it.

SEC. 28. I, Ella Angeline Rich, do leave my beloved (?) geography to Mr. Hawkins.

SEC. 29. I, Mary Frances Owen, will to Mary Edith Rollins my love for chattering.

*Don't laugh
You might need mine in a couple of years*

Nellie Mae Bescher*

AND TESTAMENT

SEC. 30. I, Jessie Lee Dougan, do leave my bookkeeping to any bright and intelligent student.

SEC. 31. I, Alton Cagle, do leave my devilment to any underclassman who is looking for a good time.

SEC. 32. We, Helen Dixon and Elizabeth Jones, will our continuous laughter to some poor soul. haha!

SEC. 33. I, Jean Parks, do leave my quiet ways to Mary Ann Ledwell.

SEC. 34. I, Patsy McCain, do leave my innocent "flirting ways" to Eleanor Sue Allen.

SEC. 35. I, Betty Holt, do leave my luck of losing billfolds and finding them again to some unlucky junior.

SEC. 36. I, Max Redding, leave my ability to go completely "goo-goo" in a football game to Joe Trogdon, hoping he'll come out of it sooner than I did.

SEC. 37. I, Patsy Ann Brown, do leave my typing skill to any junior who needs it.

SEC. 38. We, Barbara Maness and Gene Bowen, leave our "cuteness" to Marcia Drake and Joe Trogdon.

SEC. 39. I, Pauline Coltrane, do leave my thanks to someone for getting out of high school.

SEC. 40. I, Alton Cummings, do bequeath to Jack Lovell, my ability to blow too loudly in the band; to Junior Seawell, my long curly hair; and to some kid with more money than I have, I leave my interest in photography.

SEC. 41. I, Herbert Needham, leave to my little brother, "Charles," everything I have with only one exception—Ruby!

SEC. 42. I, Edith Briles, do will my ability to graduate on schedule to my "kid" sister, Lala.

SEC. 43. I, Virginia Moody, do leave to Nancy Stradley my desire to get out of high school.

SEC. 44. I, Charlotte Bonkemeyer, Do leave, to each of you, My thanks for making these four years The best I ever knew.

SEC. 45. I, Audrey Davidson, leave my freckles to Betty Keeling.

SEC. 46. I, Katie Moore, do will my friendly (?) smile to my brother, Donald, hoping that it will win as many friends for him as it has for me.

SEC. 47. I, Erma Lee Thornburg, will my ability to get into the Beta Club to anyone that has this desire.

SEC. 48. I, Thurman Bulla, do bequeath my inclination to "get by" with as little effort as possible to Frank Cole.

SEC. 49. I, Evelyn Settle, leave my typing ability to Nancy Voncannon.

SEC. 50. We, "Beans" Birkhead and "Leo" Ward, do leave for two lucky juniors—our Whizzies!

SEC. 51. I, Barbara Allred, do leave, taking with me my few possessions, as no one desires them.

SEC. 52. I, Janet Story, leave my dimples and my inherited habit of blushing to Joanne Craven in the hope that they do not get her into as much trouble as they did me.

SEC. 53. We, Frances Richardson, Mary Sue Stutts, and Lucille Staley, do leave our perfect friendship to any friendly junior.

SEC. 54. I, Rachel Ann Thompson, me, do will To those who think it worth-while, In life's darkest hour, My ability to smile. To Lyde, who sometimes thinks life's tough And there's no joy within, I will my ability to laugh And all my faith to win.

SEC. 55. I, Betty Luck, do will my ability to "go steady" to any junior who thinks she will enjoy it as much as I have.

SEC. 56. We, Clara Lee Hare, Barbara Allred, Maxine Ward, and Janet Story, do hereby will our abilities to go to school and fold circulars in Belk's stock room to Joan Cross and Esther Walker, in the hope that they have as much fun as we did.

SEC. 57. I, Dexter Bulla do leave my long stay in high school to Jackie Lovell, hoping that he can "hooker" his way out.

SEC. 58. I, Betsy Kivett, do leave my ability to make the speed laws look silly to Van Rich and his T-model.

SEC. 59. I, Paul Trollinger, do leave my ability to answer questions in geography to Sammy Clodfelter.

SEC. 60. I, Myra Steed, do will my title as "Most Athletic" to some "lazy underclassman."

SEC. 61. I, Jerry Wagster, do leave the job as editor of this annual to some worthy junior who, I hope, will do a better job.

THE BAND

*C*ornets: Jerry Ward, Bradford Bulla, Don Monroe. *C*larinets: Bill Underwood, Sarah Crawford, Sarah Almond, John T. Lane, Polly Poole, Martha Thomas, Iris Jean Powers, Barbara Russell. *S*axophones: Walter Krewson, Alton Cummings, Bernadine Powers.

*H*arp: Wayne Vestal, Thurman Bulla. *B*ass: Booker Dalton, Allen Holt. *B*aritone: Bobby Donnell. *T*rombones: Margaret Voncannon, Dexter Bulla, Jack Lovell. *D*rums: Peggy Laughlin, Marcia Drake, Peggy Trotter, Van Rich. *F*lutes: Nancy Voncannon. *O*boe: Lucy Laughlin.

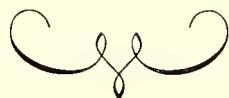

In the spring of 1948 our band attended the District Contest in Winston-Salem. Although the group received only a II rating, it received favorable comment from the judges. In the solo division Bill Underwood, Alton Cummings, and Peggy Laughlin participated. Peggy and Alton went on to the State Contest where Peggy received a I rating.

After returning in the fall with its numbers increased to 32, the band played at all of Asheboro's football games and was invited to the Tobacco Festival in Durham.

In January came the winter concert with the members wearing the new uniforms purchased right after Christmas.

The band plans to attend the Contest again this year and hopes to receive a favorable rating.

F. H. A. RALLY HERE

The future Homemakers of America from District V awoke on Saturday morning, November 13, to find it raining on one of their big days. Yes it was the day for their district rally at Asheboro.

Upon arriving at Asheboro, they were met at the door by Betty Jackson and Peggy Lamar, who gave them rolling pins, compliments of Lucas National, for souvenirs. "WELCOME" was written on them. The chapters were registered by some girls from the High Point chapter.

The program for the morning was given a good send off by the Asheboro high school band who presented several numbers. Ann Trent, state reporter, presided over the meeting. The F. H. A. minutes were recalled with and with their affiliation standing project were several vnomics students.

The most outstanding of candidates with each making a speech. They were but three of the were eliminated. These three were Joyce Humble, ofter, was elected.

Each chapter lunches which long table in the center of the cake with F. H. A. it in red icing, which symbolized the colors of the F. H. A.

The afternoon meeting opened with group singing, Betty Humble leading. The Liberty chapter lead the devotional and the Anderson chapter presented the Emblem ceremony.

Reports were given by Margaret

That the United Nations now be revised into a Federal World Government.

Persons out for debating are Sarah Cranford, Sara Matthews, Joyce Lucas, Jerry Wagger, Barbara Cox, Peggy Barnard, Mabel Bruton, Vicki Wagger, and Emily Stone.

SENIOR CLASS ELECTIONS

The senior class of Asheboro high school met in the auditorium, Wednesday, November 3, to select the class mascots, flower, colors, and poets.

A TRIBUTE TO THE "BIG BLUES" OF 1948

The 1948 edition of the Blue Comets, despite its record of 3 wins against 7 losses, was one of which Asheboro High School can well be proud. The team played hard football during its entire 10 game season, dropping a heartbreaker in the opening tilt. After this first loss the Comets took three straight games, one a conference win over North Wilkesboro. The team continued to play good football but was unable to break into the winning column.

Although the season was not as good as was hoped for, the Comets made a good showing in every game and gained the respect of opposing fans and players alike.

SUMMARY

The Asheboro High School Blue Comets opened the 1948 gridiron campaign at Lindley Field against Hanes High of Winston-Salem. Hanes won this heartbreaker 6-0 on an intercepted flat pass in the second quarter. The Comets played hard, aggressive football all the way, keeping All-State tailback Jackie Cooke completely bottled up.

Asheboro came back strong in the second game, running roughshod over Mebane to the tune of 32-0. Redding, Bowen, Voncannon, and McCombs all ran well behind the beautiful blocking of the Asheboro line.

The Comets made the long trip to North Wilkesboro for their first conference game and also their first conference win. Asheboro's passing attack proved the difference in this close tilt. A toss from Redding to Bowen produced the touchdown that gave us the game 6-0.

The boys in blue made it three in a row with a 19-0 victory over an impotent Hillsboro eleven.

The next week Asheboro played Thomasville in their only afternoon game of the season. The game was played on fairly even terms all the way, except for two long runs that spelled a 12-0 defeat for the Comets.

OF SEASON

Asheboro lost to a powerful Statesville team the following week 33-0 in a hard fought battle.

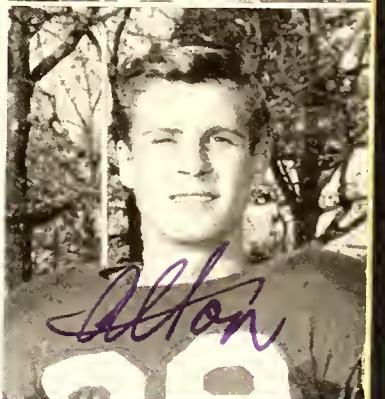

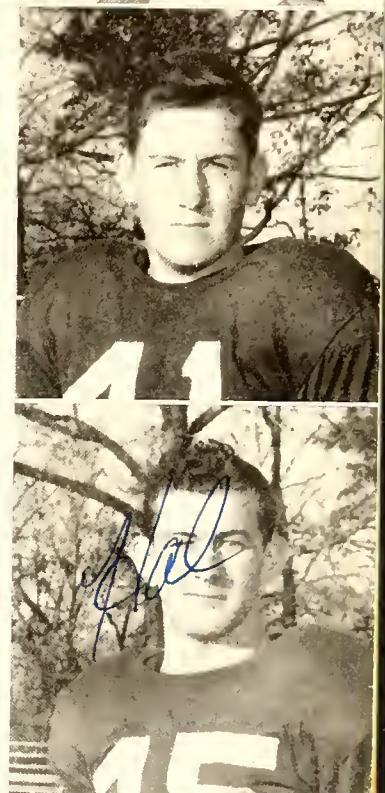

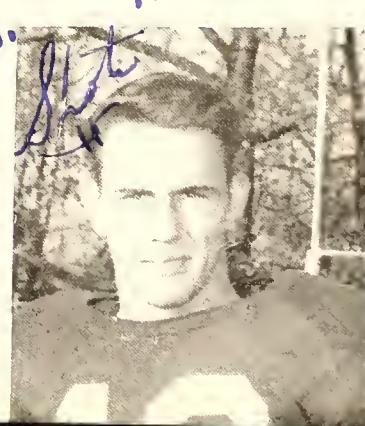

In their seventh tilt the Comets dropped a 24-6 encounter with Graham. Redding hit the line and went over standing up for Asheboro's lone marker.

Asheboro resumed conference action the next week against Kannapolis, losing 19-6. "Red" Hurley's running was the brightest spot in the Comets' offense.

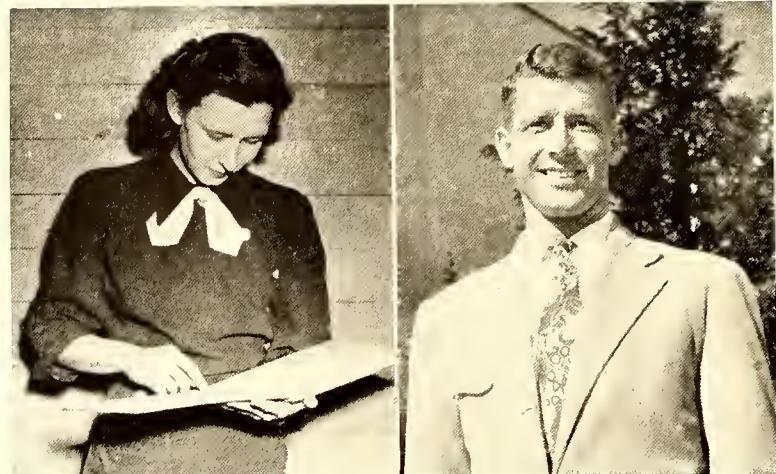

Albemarle downed the big blues 20-6 in their last home game of the season.

The Comets traveled to Monroe for their last game of the season. Although Asheboro had been blessed with fair weather in every previous game, they were forced to play on a field covered with water. The Comets battled Monroe to a standstill the second half, but could not overcome the 19-0 lead that was piled up against them in the first half. This game was marked by the Comets' usual scrappy and spirited game.

"THE BLUE COMETS"

The Blue Comets began practice for the 1949 season on November 29 with the return of 6 men from last year's squad. Coach Warren Hawkins' team has height, speed, and ability to hit the basket, plus scrap, spirit, and teamwork. Of the four pivot men, Hal and James York and Tommy Poindexter are all well over six feet, with Seawell just under the six foot mark. "Red" Voncannon, Jerry Ward, and Sammy Clodfelter are the three men from last year's squad, with Bobby Patterson, Max Redding, Bobby Burrows, and Raymond Bingham capably filling out the eleven-man roster.

In their two warm-up games before Christmas the Comets downed the Asheboro Panthers 45-31 and Robbins 36-28. The Comets showed they could hit the basket consistently in both of these games. Asheboro's pivot men completely dominated the backboard at all times, while the outmen worked smoothly on offense and displayed a close knit defense.

This season's edition of the Blue Comets' basketball team is one of the most promising in years, and it is expected to rank high in the South Piedmont Conference.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year's squad started the '49 season with the return of six lettermen and the prospect of a good season. In two warm-up games the team defeated Robbins 31 to 19 and the Carbon Plant 17 to 12.

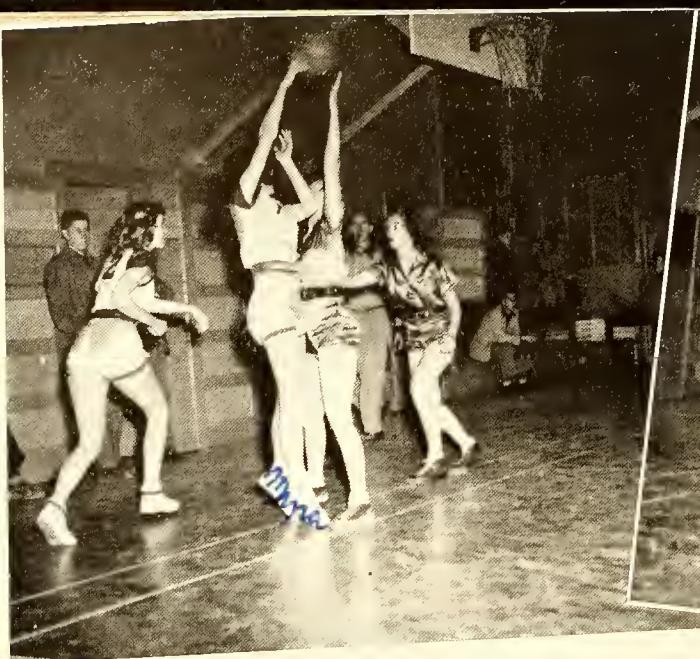

Fighting for the forward positions are Grace Walker, Lois Pugh, Myra Steed, Joan Powers, Sara Trollinger, "Becky" Presnell, and "Becky" Kearns. Guards are Emily Stone, Paddi Koonce, Janet Story, Earlene Vestal, Dixie Cannon, Betty Lane Humble, Golda Garner, Barbara Miller, and Mary Sue Haskins.

Dear Sarah,

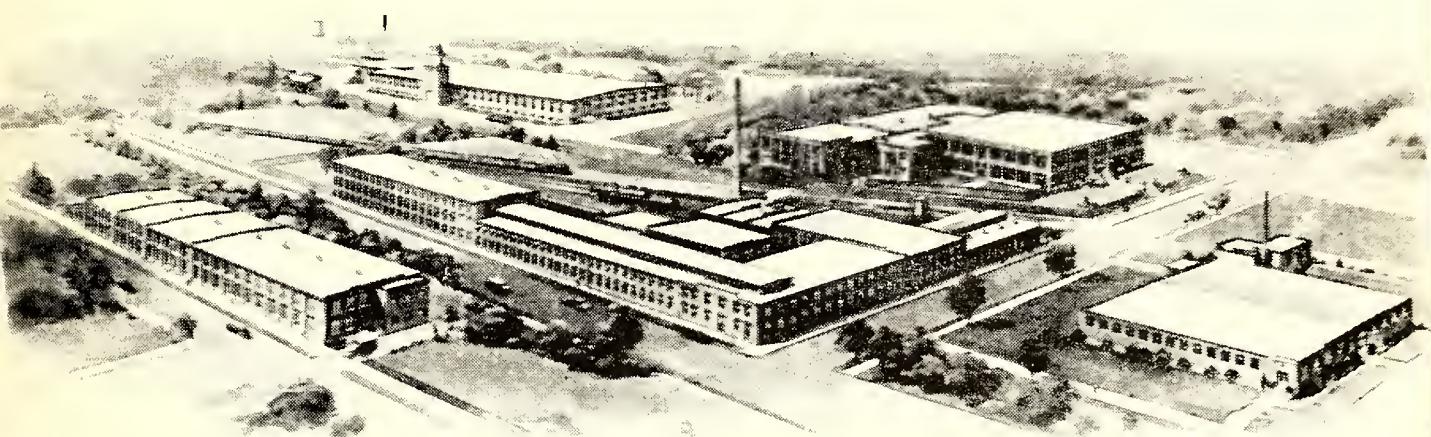

As you say, going over the hill in June may be a little regretful in a way but for you with a smile that opens ~~all~~ doors it need only be a taking off place, not a jumping off place. The past three years have ~~been~~ been so full that I can hardly realize that they are over. I can never forget the grand parties you have had (the farm was just made for that sort of thing) and the memory of them will be a highlight of school days in Old Ash-High. The next several years with you in Winston (me in Durham) will only deepen our very real friendship. I will be right in your footsteps as I cross the stage next June. May these days here be only a preview of the fulfillment of all your ambitions.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

SEC. 62. We, Bernadine Powers and Sarah Cranford, do leave our ability to get out of practicing third period to Lucy Laughlin and Walt Krewson.

SEC. 63. I, Doris Marie Hammer, do leave my ability to get here on time to any junior who can't make it.

SEC. 64. I, Ann Zimmerman, hereby leave my "Southern Accent" to "Chuck" and "Norm."

SEC. 65. I, Peggy Laughlin, do leave my place in the drum section to Marcia Drake, hoping she has as much fun in it as I did.

SEC. 66. I, Emily Stone, will my famous inheritance of the giggle to Marcia Drake to be used in the band as first trombone.

SEC. 67. I, Ruby Hurley, do leave my ability to have two new evening dresses for the Junior-Senior Prom to Sue Dorsett, with hopes that she can figure out a way to wear them both.

SEC. 68. I, Duane King, leave my "Dreamy-Eyed Look" to all incoming students and wish them as much luck with it as I have had.

SEC. 69. I, Bobby Patterson, leave my ability to be late to Billy Lilly.

SEC. 70. I, Geraldine Burris, do will my curly locks to Donsy Ingold.

SEC. 71. I, Betty McCrary, do leave my memory (?) to any junior who can remember to forget at the right time.

SEC. 72. I, Bertha Hughes, do will my ability to stay awake in class on Monday mornings to Linley Poole, in the hope that he will take better advantage of the week-end than I.

ARTICLE III

SECTION 1. Lastly, we make, constitute and appoint the students of Asheboro High School to be the executors of this, our last will and testament.

Dear Sarah,

Well, I guess this will be the last time we will write in our high school annuals. It's kinda sad - don't you think. I kinda dread leaving this old "grad factory".

I know - beyond any words - enjoyed knowing and have you as one of my closest friends the all these years. We have had fun!! No joke!!

Don't forget the swell times we've had at the Clug Slav - down at the farm on your birthday party - the trips we've taken - . You have been swell to listen to all my "troubles". We have had a few, eh, what memories. Remember when you and I sat in the car one night and talked about ? !!! Things really do change, don't they? I'll never try to figure anything, not anymore. It doesn't pay too.

was built with a lot of lumber, with the windows broken, and the roof was leaking. The walls of the house were all in your major, and I don't think I could have it done for you for less than the lumber, and the lumber
I am paying for is from small trees and I have made one hundred

Dear Sarah,

You have been a wonderful friend to me during my school days (grammar grades on up). I did "jump the gun" (you'll have to take journalism to understand that) on you in taking Home Ec. and our Algebra I class was one not to be forgotten. We were lucky enough to make the Beta Club, too. I wish you were going with me to do my math problems next year. I'll be doing grammar grade work you know. I feel that our class made a wise selection in choosing you "Most Likely to Succeed." Here's wishing you plenty of success and happiness in the future. Be sure and give Asheboro High a representation at Salem.

Luck to ya,

Received

Dear Sarah,

After four years of work (?) we're at last our goal. It's funny how it can be sad and at the same time.

These four years have flown when you down to brass tacks! But during these years things have happened that we'll never forget. Parties, dances, and just fiddling just the crowd of us. Haven't been only a portion of the happy times we've had.

Sarah, you've meant so very much to all my life, but somehow this year has drawn us closer together. We shared our sorrows and joys.

You certainly deserved "Most Likely to Succeed" for it seems that into the ever position you step, magic power your motions and the success seems to be formulated.

Your personality has made me half-way cultivate one of my own. Your witty (?) jokes (?) have forced me to catch up on the latest!

Kid, I can never mention everything we done together - bridge, swimming, but I can wish you luck in the to come and hope, (hope, I mean know!) in a few years I can say, "Oh, I see in high school." Best of every to one of the sweetest girls in the world.

With love and

Barb

Sarah.

There's so very much to say - before we leave Asheboro High!! You have made my high school days here much more enjoyable!! I believe had so much darn fun together it would be impossible to even say how much trouble we have gotten into.

Think of Campbell College. The guys we have cried over. The "bump" out in dogwood across. Oh! Sarah! you have been the truest friend anyone could ever have. I don't want to sound "queer" - but I love you very much and I shall - always. How can college be better than high school? I'll miss your friendship and your soft shoulder to cry on.

I shall never be able to repay you for so very much you have done. I won't name any of the things because I expect you to remember them too.

Don't forget Johnny or my "Groom" at dear old Campbell. Or my everyday crushes on so many A.H.S. boys. Oh! well so was life.

Shucks don't ever forget our little "grown-up" ideas about — well — (Fill in the blanks)

Truly Sarah I would like very much to fill our ambitions of living out on the west coast!! maybe - with God's help we can do that very thing.

Now you can sit back and see what I personally think of you —

You are a girl of character, personality and a very cute personal appearance. Your Christianity stands out in all your daily activities. You are frank, but not so that you hurt other persons' feelings. You are considerate of your friends. You are gifted with a frequent flow of brilliant ideas! (this of course has led not only me but you also in deep trouble!)

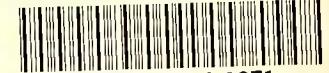

May God be with you always

Love
Joyce

P.S. Your cooking is ok when you ~~know~~ you don't use too odd of combinations
